To Whom It May Concern:

During this semester Elijah Alexis has been able to provide assistance in several areas during the times he has been able to work. His willingness to accept any type of work and work with others has made his time here enjoyable in having.

His duties included, updating employment applications for the New Mexico State Police, typing employment verifications, affidavits and admission certificates. He was punctual and provided any assistance that he could.

Elijah was very helpful and we wish him success in his future in law enforcement.

Sincerely,
